Options for Responding to Interpersonal Violence

What can I do if I am being harassed, stalked, have experienced domestic/dating violence, or was sexually assaulted

What I can do if I don’t want to talk to anyone at the University about it ...

I just want someone to talk to and find out about my options.

What I can do if I want to ensure my physical and emotional safety.

I need physical and/or emotional safety from a current or former relationship.

What I can do if I want to ensure my options so I can make informed decisions about next steps.

I want to learn more, but I don’t want to talk to anyone at the University about it.

What I can do if I want to protect information.

I want to ensure my physical and emotional safety.

What I can do if I want to support a friend who is being harassed, stalked, has experienced domestic/dating violence, or was sexually assaulted.

I want to support a friend who is dealing with harassment, stalking, or violence.

What I can do if I want to work with a campus resource to facilitate SART activation, access to campus resources, or to work to prevent recurrence.

I want to work with a campus resource to manage SART incident(s).

What I can do if I want to find out about my options.

I want to find out about my options for managing a situation.

What I can do if I want to get medical treatment.

I need medical treatment.

What I can do if I want forensic evidence collected.

I want forensic evidence collected.

What I can do if I want to take legal action. **

I want to take legal action.

What I can do if I want to take disciplinary action.

I want to take disciplinary action.

Other Non-Confidential Resources

Carl A. Fields Center
Diane International Center
LGBT Center
Residential College Adviser (RCA)
Women’s Center

LEGEND

OPTIONS - Everyone’s experience is unique. Tuning into what you want might determine which action steps, if any, you choose to take.

Needs - Your needs may assist you in choosing which options to pursue.

SHARE - Located at University Health Services, SHARE is a confidential resource that is available to you at any point in this process. SHARE advisors may assist with accessing any of the resources on- or off-campus. SHARE Peers are non-confidential and can help you get connected to the SHARE office.

 If you were under the influence of alcohol or other drugs at the time of the incident, even if you are not 21 years old, you will NOT be charged with an alcohol or drug offense by Princeton University, DPS, or Princeton Municipal Police.

Confidential Resources - are not obligated to report information that is given to them. This allows the client to explore his or her options in a non-pressure environment in order to make informed decisions. The only exceptions to this rule are in cases that involve imminent risk of serious harm, emergent hospitalizations, or a court order. While specific information may be kept confidential, these incidents may be counted for statistical purposes, as per the Clery Act.

Non-Confidential Resources - are required by law to report these incidents/violations and take legal, disciplinary or other action accordingly.

Title IX - The University does not tolerate sex discrimination or sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, and intimate partner violence. Information about the University’s Title IX Coordinator, sexual misconduct investigation and disciplinary procedures, and the provision of interim measures (e.g., academic or housing accommodations) can be accessed at RRR 1.9 or online at sexualmisconduct.princeton.edu